

Quarterly Insights Driving Adoption From Jan/Mar to Apr/Jun 2024.

Comparison of positive and negative changes on adoption

Percentage increment or decline on rate of change in Adoption

RECOMMENDATIONS

Highly motivate promoters on community engagement.

Conduct functionality audits to maintain operational dispensers.

Resolve casing issues by improving durability and quality control. Padlocks and valve issue.

Ensure Consistent Refilling and Monitoring Standardize refill schedules.

Enhance chlorine knowledge through promoter training

Train promoters to teach and encourage dispenser adoption, replicating successful practices from the second region.

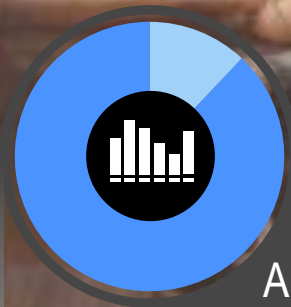

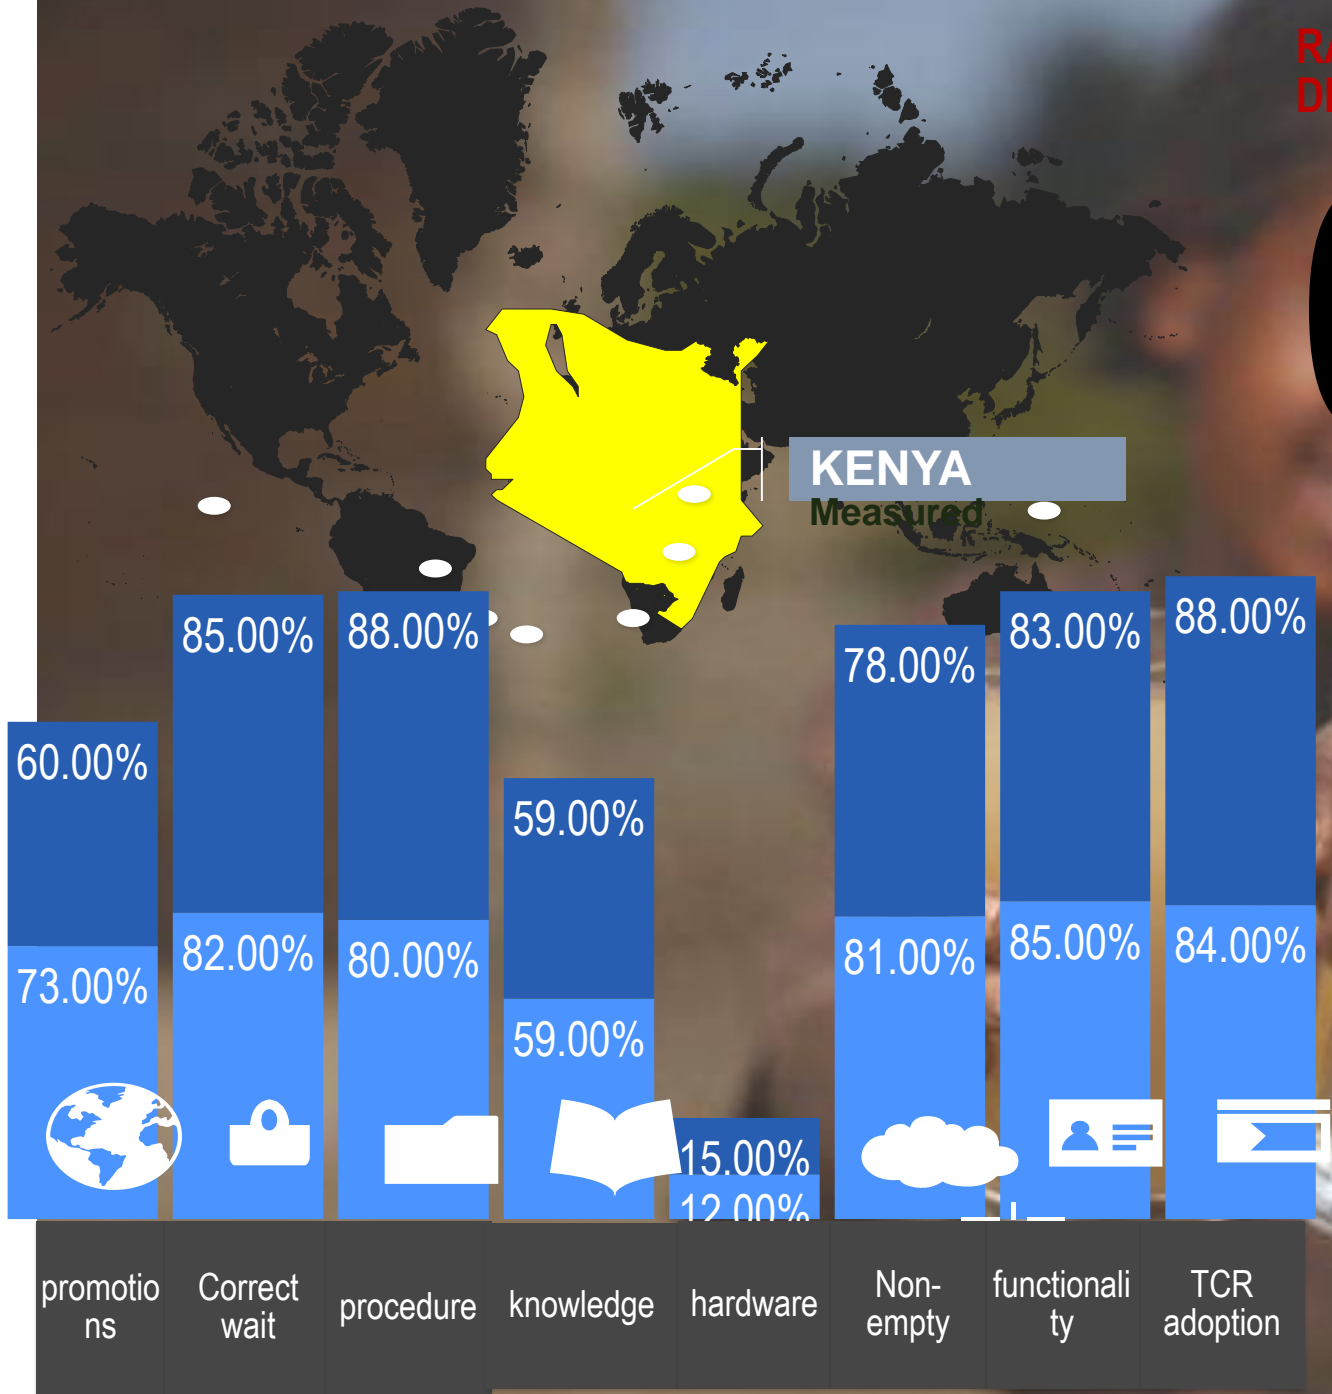

monitor water sources regularly to address inconsistencies and improve perceptions of water quality

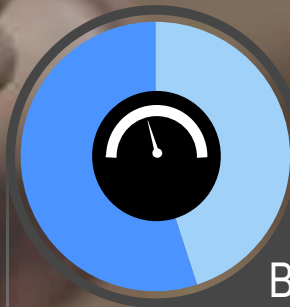

RATE OF IMPROVEMENT ON ADOPTION OF THE DISPENSERS

69%

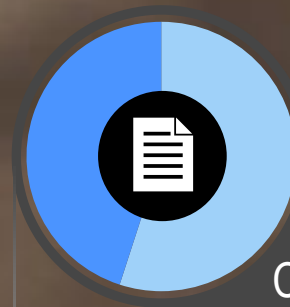

Adoption of the dispensers remain at a constant rate of approximately 69% over the two periods.

+4%
Promoter TCR
Adoption

+3%
Correct wait time

+7%
Correct steps

Comparison of positive and negative changes on adoption

Percentage increment or decline on rate of change in Adoption

RECOMMENDATIONS

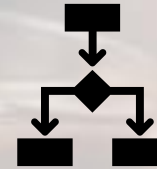

Highly motivate promoters on community engagement.

Conduct functionality audits to maintain operational dispensers.

Resolve casing issues by improving durability and quality control. Padlocks and valve issue.

Ensure Consistent Refilling and Monitoring Standardize refill schedules.

Enhance chlorine knowledge through promoter training

Train promoters to teach and encourage dispenser adoption, replicating successful practices from the second region.

Monitor water sources regularly to address inconsistencies and improve perceptions of water quality